UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE – TRADITION GOES GREEN FUTURE

GERMANY'S FIRST CONFERCING CAPITAL AND 2000 YEARS OF TRADITION – “TRADITION GOES FUTURE”

Regensburg knows a thing or two about conferences and events; after all, it has over 350 years of experience in planning and hosting. For centuries, emperors, kings, envoys, and aristocrats would come and go here. It was also home to the Perpetual Assembly from 1663 to 1803. And top English architect Sir Norman Foster indeed considers the city one of the most beautiful cities in the world. With a population of more than 160,000, Regensburg is today the fourth largest city in Bavaria, and a prospering, well connected centre of finance and science. Coupled with this is the young, vibrant, cosmopolitan vibe generated by over 30,000 students and an annual influx of some one million tourists from all over the world. A number of historic halls and modern venues are available to host your event.

These can be arranged and booked by Regensburg Tourismus GmbH (RTG), which offers a comprehensive events service.

- + Optimum transport access
- + New since April 2018: www.marinaforum.de
- + New since May 2019: The Bavarian History Museum & a program of Bavarian-style accompanying events

All room allocations from a single source through RTG.

CRYSTALS AND ROYALTY IN REGENSBURG

During the days of the Perpetual Assembly, Regensburg's Prince Thurn and Taxis was the emperor's representative when the emperor himself was unable to attend meetings. Get to know the former Free Imperial City and the historic assembly site on the "A rendezvous with Europe" tour. The idea of "tradition goes future" was beginning to emerge even back in the early times. And openness, hospitality and considerable international influence continue to shape the modern-day UNESCO World Heritage city to this day. Among the examples of this are the delicious chocolates from Germany's oldest coffee shop. These were served during the time of the Perpetual Assembly on the recommendation of an envoy from France, and are today still popular as gifts for hosts on special occasions.

Choose from over 400 different tours (with or without theatrical performances) and 2000 years of history. All tours can be adapted to specific requirements. For example, tours can also be arranged from hotels to venues or from venues to evening events as brief escorted outings, giving your participants the opportunity to get to know the UNESCO World Heritage Site. For a dazzling highlight, take a dinner cruise on one of the "crystal fleet" vessels – exclusively made with Swarovski Elements. Your night may well end in The Love Boat style as a lavish ice-cream cart rolls in and the sparklers start to twinkle.

Other suggested activities for accompanying social events that stick with the crystal and royalty theme include a visit to the Crystal Museum in Riedenburg, the Joska crystalworks with traditional artisanal glass-blowing in the Bavarian Forest, or a tour of Thurn und Taxis Palace, where the royal family continues to live today.

THE BAVARIAN REGENSBURG

The people of Regensburg know a thing or two about Bavarian hospitality. Fancy taking a Weisswurst sausage seminar as a unique way to spend a lunch break? Or perhaps a brewery tour after a tiring day of meetings, conferences and seminars? How about brewing your own beer, including a beer tasting and hearty Bavarian dinner in Bavaria's original capital? It's bound to be a memorable experience. The beer can be collected approximately 12 weeks after the brewing course (complete with an exclusively designed label) and distributed to participants.

Maybe you'd prefer an in-store mustard tasting at Händlmaier's, the famous original mustard brand. Or sailing down the Danube to the sounds of Bavarian music on a replica of an old salt barge, while enjoying a beer tasting over a typical Bavarian Brotzeit snack?

Whether it be a Bavarian menu package, Bavarian restaurants, leafy beer gardens or the world's oldest sausage kitchen, all options are a great way to relax and explore Bavarian culture. And be sure to also visit the new Bavarian History Museum.

ACTIVE REGENSBURG

Ever played baseball?

Or how about Germany's favorite game, the almighty football? Fancy taking a shot at goal at the new Jahnstadion or learning from expert demonstrations by the Jahn Regensburg team? Whether it be a GPS hunt through time and space or an Illuminati puzzle in the Challenge Room, whether it be corporate tours of Global Players like BMW, or specialized visits to start-up centers like the Techbase IT center or the Biopark (biotechnology center), Regensburg's diverse cultural and creative industry, and numerous other cluster initiatives, are all at your disposal.

The UNESCO World Heritage-listed city will surprise you with extraordinary, tailor-made components for your accompanying events.
